Conservatives Win Two Seats—A Fool Who Did Not Know It was Loaded.

N. P. Rates to Winnipeg—Flood in New Brunswick—Burns to be Honored.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Toronto, Oct. 12—Out of three elections for the legislature yesterday, the Conservatives gained two seats and the Reformers one. Hugh Smith, Conservative, got Frontenac by ninety votes. Dr. Willoughby was elected for East Northumberland by sixteen votes, and J. C. Davie was elected to East Elgin by one hundred votes.

At a meeting of the St. Andrew's Society, held last evening, it was decided to erect a statue to Burns in Toronto.

Kingston, Oct. 12—The grand jury discovered that convicts in the penitentiary have free use of razors for shaving, and recommend that the practice be stopped.

A lad named Whelan, of Clear Lake, in company with his cousin, named Wilson, was examining a revolver, when he playfully pointed it at his cousin. It went off and the ball entered Wilson's breast near the heart. After lingering several days he died. An inquest is being held.

FROM WINNIPEG.

Track of the R. R. Valley Road Laid—Prisoner Escapes

Special to THE TIMES.]

Winnipeg, Oct. 12—The track of the Red River Valley Railway was laid right up to the station grounds to-day. The Northern Pacific have announced their rates. Freights are cut about ten per cent. on the C. P. R. tolls and the passenger tariff is the same.

Griesbach, sentenced several years ago to a long term in the penitentiary for robbing the Qu'Appelle mail, escaped on Sunday. The particulars only got out yesterday and it seems that by exemplary behavior he commended himself to the officials, in particular to the chaplain, who converted him. The latter employed him a good deal as a domestic servant. The chaplain's wife was sick on Sunday, and while he went to conduct service in the penitentiary, Griesback was left in the house as messenger in case of an emergency. He swapped his stripes for the parson's black suit and took all the money he could find. He saddled the parson's horse and rode off. He is now probably across the line.

NEW BRUNSWICK NEWS.

Large bodies of men are repairing the washouts on the N. B. Railway. They hope to make connection with Maine to-day.

The River St. John is within a few inches of the highest recorded level. Eighty million feet of logs, jammed at Grand Falls, came down with a rush yesterday but will be caught at Fredericton. From all over the Province come reports of bridges swept away, mill property damaged, and timber lost.

FROM NEW WESTMINSTER.

Foot Severely Cut—Marriage of Inspector of Fisheries.

Special to THE TIMES.]

New Westminster, Oct. 12—Wm. Higgins, representing the Ross-McLaren Lumbering Co., Ottawa, has let contracts for work preparatory to the erection of the company's sawmill above Sapperton.

Last evening a young man named McLeod, who was in the employ of Laidlaw & Co., had a portion of his foot nearly cut off with an axe. He was taken by his co-laborers to the town and placed in the Royal Columbian Hospital for treatment.

It is stated on good authority that Thos. Mowat, Inspector of British Columbia fisheries, was united in matrimony to a young lady of the city of St. John, N. B., a few days since. Mr. Mowat and bride are expected to arrive in the Royal City some time during the coming week.

SUPPORT SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—This was the cry of the Colonist during the last general election for the Commons. It was also the cry of all the office seekers and government pap-suckers. Support Sir John A. Macdonald, said honest J. S. H., and return the old veterans. Perhaps the good old man, in times gone by, understood Crown Colony politics, but he is only a child to "Old To-morrow" and his colleagues in Dominion politics. One of his veterans supported Sir John faithfully and got his reward, and his constituency got left. The other veteran is still seeking a senatorial reward, and he must serve Sir John until he gets it, and the Victoria Board of Trade will have to do his and his new colleagues work, by representing and urging the just demands of Victoria. Two votes in the Commons have more influence if honestly and properly exercised in the interests of Victoria than half a dozen Boards of Trade. But what has wakened up the Colonist from its servile support to Sir John? Is it possible that the threatened removal of the C Battery is the cause? What about all the other interests that have been neglected, and the broken promises, and the vague promises, and the promises of earnest consideration without end or number, and the promises of something to morrow, that never comes? Come, Colonist, tell us how many promises have been fulfilled and yet you have for years been supporting that ever promising but to Victoria never performing government. But, however, we ought to be pleased that you have seen the error of your course, and it's to be hoped that henceforward you will only support the party that will do us the greatest amount of justice.

MOODY'S MEETINGS.

Large Attendance at Roller Rink—Mr. Moody Ill.

The steamer Olympian did not arrive until a late hour last evening, and the large audience in the Skating Rink on Yates street were greatly disappointed when the announcement was made that the Evangelist, D. L. Moody, was ill and would not be present. A large platform at the northern end of the building was occupied by a numerous gathering of clerical gentlemen, and a splendid choir of sixty voices, under the able direction of J. G Brown. Prof. Sharp, organist of the Pandora street Methodist Church, presided at the organ.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Donald Fraser, M. A. Revs. MacLeod, Fraser, Starr, Wadman and Rogg addressed the meeting and the choir sang several Gospel Hymns.

Mr. J. G. Brown sang "Where is My Wandering Boy To-night" in splendid voice and was joined in chorus by the choir and audience. Rev. Dr. Reed informed the ladies and gentlemen present that Mr. Moody was unwell and unable to attend. He gave a few words of advice to his hearers and announced that Mr. Moody would remain over a few days longer than was originally intended. The reverend gentlemen then introduced Mr. Studd, who made a few well chosen remarks.

Mr. A. J. McLellan announced that a meeting would be held at 3:30 this afternoon and another meeting at 8 o'clock this evening. The choir sang another fine gospel hymn and the meeting dispersed.

The hall was well fitted up for the accommodation and safety of the large audience. Two large electric lights were used to illuminate the building and seats placed on the floor to accommodate over 1500 persons. The building was well ventilated—every pane of glass had been broken by mischevous boys and the time at the disposal of the committee of arrangements was too short to make the necessary repairs.

During Mr. Moody's stay in this city a series of revival meetings will be held. Entrance to the building, excepting for the choir, will be on View street. The aisles require widening to facilitate ingress and egress.

AFTERNOON SERVICES.

The meeting in the Skating Rink this afternoon was opened by singing the 42d Hymn, "Jesus Calling to Save." Rev. P. MacF. MacLeod engaged in prayer for the success of the work in this city. The 23rd Hymn, "Joy Cometh in the Morning," was then sung by the choir and audience. Rev. J. E. Starr was then called on by Mr. Moody, and spoke a few words of encouragement and hoped for success of the movement. After singing the 222nd Hymn, "Jesus Lover of My Soul," Mr. Moody commenced his address. The Evangelist said he was glad to see so many at the meeting which was a sign of success. He held his hearers spell-bound with the words of encouragement and hope held forth to the Christian worker. The address was listened to with rapt attention by about four hundred ladies and gentlemen. Owing to the lateness of the hour it was held it is impossible to give a more lengthy report of the proceedings.

The services this evening will take place at 8 o'clock. The choir will meet at 7:30 o'clock.

FROM NANAIMO.

Salmon Swarming—Boom in Building—Plenty of Men.

From our own Correspondent.]

Nanaimo, Oct. 11.—The rainy season appears at last to have broken through the balmy weather of these parts and our proverbial fall rains are heard to patter daily on the window panes, yet we have not got any degree of cold. Our overcoats hang in the closet, and we substitute the waterproof therefor.

The Bay of Nanaimo is literally alive with the fall salmon, swarming, awaiting at the portals of our pretty little river for the first flush of the freshet, when that mighty army of finny soldiers will start on their crusade upwards and onwards, pursuing their way until thousands of them line the banks of rivulets and streams, having wasted their lives and energy complying with Nature's great laws.

There has been a great boom in building of late. The man who came to take the place of "John" of China found it necessary to have different domiciles in which to dwell. One family of our Anglo-Saxon race prefers one home; hence a large number of houses had to be built for their accommodation.

The advance of coal has put the local colliers to the tension, and a far larger quantity of coal has been got out of late. The ingress of people has far exceeded the demand for labor, and at present there is a large surplus on the grounds. A call for workmen last week brought 75 applicants for the single place, and the workshops are daily besieged by men searching for employment. And though there have been hundreds of new hands employed during the past summer, the arrivals have been more than the requirements could possibly embrace.

The extension of streets has helped to make Nanaimo look more town-like; yet the rush is in the south ward, close by the works of the V. C. Co., being chiefly workmen employed to fill "John of China's" place. However, if the shipping don't come more freely the halcyon days are past, and our collieries must either reduce the number of employees or work short time, as the present output of 2000 tons per diem collectively will require some demand to remove it away. Ships are scarce and the harbor all but empty, while the coal is filling up every available place on the dump.

A few city improvements are taking place this year. Nicol street will be opened up and remain an ornament of the generosity and liberality of the V. C. Co.

OUR PRESS DISPATCHES

A Daring Postoffice Robbery in Buffalo—A Tie Vote at Montreal.

Canals Blocked—Collector Patton, of Toronto, Dead—The Queen Enjoying Herself.

Kingston, Oct. 12—The news from Westport is to the effect that a murder occurred near that place. A young man was set upon by the husband of a woman to whom he was paying attention, shot and mortally wounded. The young man is said to have made a confession of the facts before his death.

AN ELECTION TIE.

Montreal, Oct. 12—The election for the St. Jean Baptiste ward vacancy in the City Council yesterday resulted in a tie, both ex-Ald. Lee and Dr. Germain receiving 622 votes. At the election in March, Germain polled 798 against 778 for Lee.

ROB WHITE BANQUETED.

R. S. White, M. P. for Cardwell, was banqueted by the Junior Conservative Club, of which he is President, this evening. The gathering was a brilliant one. In addition to the Hon. Mr. Chapleau and Mr. Taillon, it included all the leading Conservatives both French and English in the district.

LARGE MILL.

Ottawa, Oct. 12—Ross, McLaren & Co., of Ottawa, will have in operation on the Fraser River, B. C., next June, a sawmill with a capacity of seventy million feet.

SHOT HIMSELF.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 12—Alex. Taylor, a well-known Main street stationer, shot himself in the side to-day. He had been drinking lately. He now lies in a critical condition at a hospital.

COLLECTOR PATTON DEAD.

Toronto, Oct. 12—Mr. Patton, collector of customs, was found dead in his office to-day. Heart disease was the cause.

BREAK IN CANAL.

Cornwall, Oct. 13—A serious break has occurred in the Cornwall canal, which will take some weeks to repair. This practically closes the inland navigation for some time.

The Minister of Customs is formulating means for a vigorous enforcement of the customs regulations at all the stations along the boundary line of Manitoba.

Another break has occurred in the eastern cables, showing the absolute need of a second cable east via Vancouver. The chairman of the Eastern Telegraph Company denies that the Australian colonies are willing to promote the new Pacific cable. He said, at a meeting yesterday that though Queensland was prepared to join in the formation of a Pacific line to secure reduced rates, the other colonies were unwilling to injure the Eastern Company.

SMALLPOX IN BUFFALO.

Toronto, Oct. 12—A dispatch from Buffalo says: "Two new cases of smallpox were reported to the Board of Health yesterday. These cases are in the Vankromberg family. A mother who is ill from confinement and a child about a year old are the victims of the disease.

WELCOMING STANLEY.

Ottawa, Oct. 12—Addresses of welcome will be presented to Lord Stanley to-morrow by the St. Andrews and Sons of England societies.

QUEBEC BOODLERS.

Quebec, Oct. 12—The press here is suggested that it is about time action was taken in connection with the scandelous boodling transactions alleged to have taken place in connection with the Lake St. John Railway, and the Quebec Water Works, which came so prominently before the public at the last term of criminal court. LeLecteur says that if the Royal Commission suggested by Mercier is appointed to inquire into the matter, it should also investigate matters in connection with the Harbor Commission, which it characterizes as rank corruption, and charges that one member made $85,000 by supplying the commission with cement, while the harbor works contractors furnished $5000 for last general election.

A POST OFFICE ROBBED.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 13—The Fulton Market post office was robbed last night of all the mails arriving from all points and the papers and documents from which money had been abstracted were strewn about the street in the vicinity of the market this morning. A large quantity of letters had evidently been opened and robbed. The torn letters filled a market basket. Many letters notifying drafts for large sums were found, but no drafts. The authorities are investigating.

The banks were notified to look out for suspicious characters offering checks. Soon after the bank opened a man named John Shields, a night stamping clerk in the post office, presented a check at one of the banks and was promptly arrested Shields does not deny the charge of robbing the mails.

THE NURSE OF ROYALTY.

London, Oct. 12—The Queen is enjoying the treat of health, revelling in the early winter with unheard of cold. She has been taking drives and walks daily during the heavy snow storms and cold of last week, and has been putting the strength and endurance of her ladies in waiting to a severe test. Lady Ely, her chief companion, having served a longer apprenticeship than the others, is more accustomed to cold, and more able to endure it. The death of Mrs. Hull, at Windsor, was a source of great sorrow to the Queen and her family. She was nurse to the royal children from the time the Prince of Wales was three months old to 1848, and had frequently taken care of the children of the Empress Frederick, the Prince of Wales, and the Grand Duchess Alice of Hesse. After her marriage she lived at Windsor, and was often visited by the Queen during her illness. Her little house was a model of neatness and was full of presents given during her life by the Queen and the royalties. The greatest delight of the old lady was to display her treasures and to recount the names of the donors and the circumstance of each gift.

Strawberries.

Mr. Joseph Maynard, of Cadboro Bay, brought to the office of THE TIMES to-day a large bunch of strawberries. The fruit were large and of excellent growth and flavor. What a climate to live in—two crops of fruit in one year!

A meeting of the members of the Victoria Building Society will be held this evening to decide on the issuing of C and D shares.

THE CHINESE SENSATION.

An Unfortunate Woman Decoyed from the Pacific Coast and Lost.

Readers of the Globe, says that journal, will remember the case of the Chinese woman who was brought to Toronto from Victoria, B. C., during August last by one Chinaman, who had contracted to procure a woman for another Chinaman, for which service he was paid $200. When the agent got to Victoria it was said that he could not get the woman without legally marrying her, which he was alleged to have done. Reaching Toronto with his bride he refused to hand her over to Chinaman No. 2, according to agreement, at which the second Celestial waxed wrath and threatened force, when the supposed young husband asked the protection of the police.

Inspector Archibald and "a lady interested in missions" visited the abused couple, learned the melancholy story which they told so ingenuously, and hastened to throw about the protecting arm of the law. At this point the public lost sight of the case, and it was comfortably supposed that the curtain had been rung down on the last act, but Mrs. (Rev.) J. E. Starr, of Victoria, B. C., who is visiting Toronto, has thrown some startling new light on the affair.

It turns out that the meek Chinaman who played the affectionate husband so successfully and so completely deceived Inspector Archibald was not married to the woman at all, but actually carried her off for a life of shame, according to his original plan; a fact that should have been understood immediately from Mr. Starr's telegram, which said:

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug 23.
——— taken Chinese girls to Toronto. Spot him. ——— (the interpreter), will post you.
(Signed) J. E. STARR.

Mr. Starr would hardly have wired in these terms about a legally married bridal couple. He might have asked the inspector to watch such a pair, knowing the previous life of the girl, but the words "taken Chinese girl to Toronto" mean more than the exodus of a suspicious married couple.

The facts are that the girl was rescued some time ago from one of the Chinese dens of enslaved prostitutes in the Chinese quarters of Victoria, B. C., and taken to the Chinese Rescue Home conducted by the Methodist Missionary Society, and placed under the charge of Miss Leake. It was evident that the poor girl had been so severely dragged at some time as to permanently injure her health, and she would sit for hours at the Home in a kind of stupor. During the early summer a local Chinaman persuaded her to marry him, and the marriage settlements were drawn up by Mr. J. J. B. Flint, police magistrate, for Belleville, Oct., that gentleman being in Victoria at the time. The pair were kept within the ken of Rev. Mr. Starr and Mr. Vrooman Gardiner, a Methodist missionary, for some weeks, when they were terrorised by the "High-binders"—a gang of men who are in the pay of the keepers of the houses of prostitution—and the woman spirited away. They tried in every possible way to find the unfortunate creature who had escaped from their clutches, and her old slave master, but got no trace until they had heard that she had reached Toronto with this man who pretended to be her husband. Her acquiescence in this story may be easily accounted for when her susceptibility to drugs is remembered, though Rev. Mr. Starr was by no means sure that she came with this agent unwillingly. Her husband is yet in Victoria, and is prevented by his poverty and ignorance of English from coming east in search of his wife.

On the arrival of Mrs. Starr, an effort was made to see the woman in question, but, in spite of the promised supervision of the police, she is nowhere to be found. It is feared that the scoundrels, who doubtless kidnapped her from her husband, have succeeded in reducing her to the degraded position for which she was purchased, and that she is skillfully concealed in some of the Chinese shops or houses in Toronto.

DR. MACKENZIE'S BOOK.

Personal and Professional Pique—Prominent Throughout.

London, Oct. 11—The Medical Journal's synopsis of Dr. Mackenzie's book occupies a column of that paper. Personal professional pique is prominent throughout. He describes Dr. Gerhardt as a discredited rival, and sneers at the lack of skill of the German doctors generally. It is undeniably true that Dr. Mackenzie himself applied the synopsis to the Medical Journal, and that, too, in defiance of his agreement with his publisher. Dr. Mackenzie complains that in preparing his defence he has been placed at a marked disadvantage by being refused access to important documents which were available to his assailants. He then declared he had never deceived his royal patient as to the nature of the malady or its serious character. On the contrary, the sufferer was kept accurately informed. The author has ample proof of this, and alleges that the German doctors made the charge of deception, knowing it to be false and hoping thereby to prejudice Frederick against his British adviser. Beginning with October, 1887, Dr. Mackenzie says Prof. Bergmann admitted that Mackenzie's course was the correct one. The visit to England had been arranged before Mackenzie was summoned to take charge of the case. On the much disputed question of unskilled operations, Dr. Mackenzie says that Prof. Bramann's tracheotomy was on the whole well done, but the trachea was opened three millimetres to the right of the middle line. Bramann's canule was of unusual shape and size, and the lower end impinged on the posterior wall of the trachea, causing a gradual destruction of the tissue and resulting in the intense discomfort and consequent exhaustion of the patient. Dr. Mackenzie asserts that Professor Bergmann gave his diagnosis as a secondary cancer of the lung, through finding a dullness at the back of the lungs. Bergmann obstinately adhered to this theory, and Prof. Kussmant had to be brought from Strasbourg before Bergmann would admit his mistake. Perhaps the most serious charge made by the English physician is contained in the statement that he does not hesitate to say a death blow was given to the patient on April 12th, when the false passage made by Bergmann's tube caused extensive suppuration around the trachea, which steadily reduced the remaining strength of the sufferer and shortened his life at least ten months. The statement is made that except when the false passage was made and Bergmann thrust his finger into the wound, Frederick never suffered actual pain.

Dr. Morrison has removed to Moody's Block, 78 Yates street, up stairs. 1m*

The Daily Times.

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON EXCEPT SUNDAY.

Victoria, Friday, October 12, 1888.

SOCIALISTIC DOCTRINE.

Our morning contemporary, the advocate of monopoly of capital over labor, brains and understanding, charges us (at least we suppose it is THE TIMES that is meant) with being an anti-capitalist and socialist. The doctrines we put forth in reference to the use of capital, are those preached by the Apostles and all men of thought from time immemorial down to the present. The pulpits of our city have voiced the words and teachings of their Lord and Master on this subject. We are perfectly aware that money has its uses as well as its abuses. It is against the latter we declaim, and the quotation from the Canadian Baptist, given by our contemporary, fully bears out the theories promulgated by THE TIMES. That quotation does not attribute moral worth, or worth of any kind to the possessors of hoarded wealth; neither does it deny that capital is often accumulated by individuals who only care for their fellow creatures in so far as they can make use of them for the consummation of their own ends. We have pointed out instances where wealth in the hands of the good and generous has been a blessing to suffering and indigent mankind. We oppose the abuse, not the legitimate use, of wealth, and if the teachings of all wise and good men are socialistic, then indeed are we sorry for the salvation of society. The mind of the individual must be narrow indeed that perverts, to suit its own ends, the teachings of our religion, and dubs the divines who preach their Master's doctrine as socialists. It is such teachings that has in the past created socialism, communism and anarchy.

NO JOGGINS' RAFTS WANTED.

THE TIMES cannot agree with the Vancouver World, that the proposal to construct two mammoth rafts of lumber in this province for export to San Francisco and Chili, will be "heard with every degree of pleasure" by our people. On the contrary, it is somewhat surprising that our contemporary, situated as it is, at one of the great lumber centres of the province, should advocate any scheme so suicidal to it's interests. The principal advantage that our immense forests are to us, is the manufacture of lumber in the province. Take away the sawmills, for instance, from New Westminster and Vancouver, and you strike one of the worst possible blows at their prosperity. The manufacture of lumber at these places is the all important industry, engaging a large number of men, creating employment for foundries, machine shops, merchants, hotel keepers, longshoremen, &c., and attracting population around them generally. If, however, Mr. ROBERTSON is to be as successful here with his rafts, as he has been with his last venture on the Atlantic coast, does not the World recognize that the manufacture of lumber is at once transferred from this province to San Francisco, or Chili, or wherever the logs are carried to? The shrewd American has long seen this, with the result that logs are admitted into the United States free of duty, and hence the foundation of the Joggins' raft industry. With the success of the Joggins' raft business in this province not only will the lumber manufacturing industry be destroyed, so far as the export is concerned, but the coasting trade will be also injured, and the white winged messengers of commerce will be banished from our seas and harbors. No vessels sailing to our ports for lumber, there will be none to carry to us at cheap rates the products of foreign countries, and to build up a commerce between us and the rest of the world. No, we think the World on second thought will agree with us, that we want no Joggins' rafts in this province, which would be to our prosperity as a candle lighted at both ends. These adventures should not be encouraged but instead it will be the duty of our Government to place such a duty upon saw-logs as will not merely discourage but stop their export.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Winnipeg Free Press: While some may be disposed to pooh-pooh annexation talk of any and every kind, we do not believe that it should be lightly regarded. There can be no doubt that the restrictionist policy now being pursued in Canada, and the repeated onslaughts from Ottawa upon Provincial rights continue to create widespread discontent and threaten to destroy every man's allegiance to the scheme of confederation. The longer Tory misrule continues the greater will grow the debt and the exodus, and under such circumstances the annexation bait held up will surely increase in attractiveness.

There are three candidates in Cariboo-Lillooet district—Messrs. McLeese, Barnard and Rodgers. Mr. McLeese, through a card in the TIMES, announces himself as the Conservative candidate. As Mr. Barnard is also a Conservative it is not likely that he will be shunted off his old political track by this declaration, and he will probably also come out as a straight-laced party candidate. The contest will not, therefore, be a party one, and the issues will be almost entirely personal and local. The chances are said by our Barkerville correspondent to be largely in favor of Mr. McLeese, who is known to every voter as one of the solid residents of the district. For our part, we would rejoice to see the candidates take a more independent stand than is possible in the ranks of either of the two political parties, and were either of them to throw party to the dogs and come out as an advocate of measures and principles, we are of opinion that his chances of election would not thereby be reduced. Does the treatment that Victoria is receiving not prove the inadequacy of mere party representatives when affairs of moment are being considered.

VANCOUVER NEWS.

Trouble Between the Government and a Contractor—Maude Grounds.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Vancouver, October 10—The steamer Maude arrived from Victoria yesterday forenoon freighted with water mains for the Vancouver Water Works Co., to be used on the line between the north shore of the Inlet and the dam. While unloading the water mains at the Narrows this morning she lay so near the bank that she grounded and the Yosemite went out and towed her off at 11 o'clock.

It is said that the old steamer Beaver, which still lies on the rocks at the entrance to the Narrows, is shortly to be raised, and after undergoing the necessary repairs will again float on the bosom of the deep.

Mr. N. E. Gosnell, of Chatham, Ont., arrived in the city yesterday to take the position of city editor of the News-Advertiser, in place of Capt. Worsnop, who has accepted a position in H. M. Customs at this port.

The farewell reception which was tendered to the Rev. R. Y. Thompson, in the First Presbyterian church last evening, was a grand success. At the close of the entertainment the Rev. gentleman was presented with a purse containing a handsome sum collected by several of the young ladies of the congregation.

This morning a peculiar case came up before the Police Magistrate. It arose out of a complaint lodged by Mr. McCartney, architect, against Mr. McDonald, who had sub-contracted the work of building the West End school from Mr. Ross, of Victoria. The latter had given Mr. McDonald a copy of the plans and specifications with instructions not to permit any one else to have them, as there was, according to Mr. McDonald's statement, a dispute between the Government and the contractor regarding the completion of the work, and the plans and specifications were his only evidence. According to the contract the Superintendent and all parties concerned were to have access to the said plans. Mr. McCartney, the superintendent of the work, claims that he could not obtain access to them which was necessary in the discharge of his duties. Mr. McDonald was accordingly arraigned to answer why he should not deliver up the property in dispute. Mr. Boultbee, for the plaintiff, held that the defendant had no right whatever to the plans and specifications and Mr. Hammersley, for the defendant, contended that he (Mr. McDonald) was only carrying out the instructions of Mr. Ross and that he proposed to do so. He said access had not been denied and protested strongly against making the Police Court a medium through which to bring a civil suit by criminal procedure. The case was remanded till to-morrow.

Oct. 11th.—Last evening the dining room of the Leland House was well filled by a large number of our leading citizens, who tendered a reception to the victorious Vancouver Lacrosse Club. Having done ample justice to the savory viands so aptly provided for the occasion the chairman, Mr. Campbell Sweeney, Manager of the Bank of Montreal, introduced the toast list. "Our Guests," which was proposed with eulogistic warmth, and great dignity of expression and responded in a very modest and becoming manner by the Vice-President and Secretary, Messrs. Godfrey and Suckling. The Secretary with his accustomed gallantry, proposed the health of "Our Opponents, the Victoria Club" to which Mr. McFeely, for the latter, responded in a befitting speech, which savored of the warmest friendship and most commendable rivalry which he assured them was shared by every member of the club he represented. The "Brocton Park Athletic Club" was ably represented by Messrs. Campbell, Sweeney and Hammersley. Mr. Williams, the Vancouver champion, responded to the toast of "The Lawn Tennis Club." "Our Dominion" was responded by Mr. O'Brien of the World in a lengthy and eloquent manner. "Stanley Park" had an able advocate in Mr. McCrany, while "The Ladies" were upheld by the gallantry of Messrs. Henderson and Hall. Toasts were drunk to Messrs. Beck and Grant, the promoters of the banquet, and to the Chairman, Mr. Sweeny, and the Vice Chairman, Mr. Hammersley. Songs from Messrs. Middlebrook, Dunn, Williams, Murphy, Foster and others enlivened the evening's proceedings, and the National Anthem brought the banquet to a happy close.

In answer to an advertisement of Mr. Codville's calling a meeting for the purpose of considering ways and means of purifying the Government at Ottawa, about forty persons assembled in the City Hall last night. By request Dr. Stephenson took the chair. Mr. Codville then addressed the meeting at some length, referring to matters all the way to the cost of of political matters by a clique of designing misrepresentatives to the permission of Chinese business on our streets and in our cities on the Sabbath. The object of the meeting was to form an organization to checkmate those who held the cue in the Government and to look into municipal matters.

Messrs. Brown, Devine, Alderman Humphries, Dr. Stephenson and others briefly commented upon the speaker's remarks, but offered no consolation or support as regarded the demolition of the Government at Ottawa; but they thought an organization for the purpose of considering municipal matters would be a very proper move. So it was determined to call a meeting on Wednesday evening next for that purpose with an express understanding to keep party politics out of the question and unite for the common interests of Vancouver. The lowering of the city franchise and the qualifications of aldermen were mentioned as two things to be considered.

The steamship Parthia, Capt. Wallace, sailed for San Francisco this afternoon. The Duke of Westminster is expected to return here and depart for China on the 22nd, and the Parthia will leave this port for Hong Kong on the 7th of November.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Resolutions Adopted—Superintendents of the Several Departments.

(1.) Resolved, That we offer our gratitude to Almighty God for the kind providence that has been over us during the year that is past, and that we meet again under such favorable circumstances.

(2.) Resolved, That this Convention recommends the local Unions to bring all pressure to bear upon school trustees in several localities, so as to secure teachers of good morals and sound temperance principles.

(3.) That, as at present our hospitals contain no accommodation for women, we respectfully request the Government to provide a ward for women in the new Jubilee Hospital.

(4.) That all local Unions be invited to give one entertainment during the year, the proceeds of which shall be devoted to replenishing our W. C. T. U. Provincial treasury.

(5.) That, in order to facilitate business at the annual convocation, all local Unions be requested to close their yearly accounts not later than the last week in July, also, that the Provincial Corresponding Secretary forward statistical blank forms to them before June 30th, and that they be filled and returned to the Secretary not later than July 31st.

(6.) Resolved, That as the World's W. C. T. U. have determined to petition the governments of the world against the existing moral evils, particularly intemperance, tobacco and opium, this convention recommend the local unions to continue the circulation of this petition throughout our province to be signed by every woman above the age of 16.

(7.) Resolved, That as in the eastern provinces Loyal Legions are superseding Bands of Hope, we re-organize the latter under the name of "Loyal Legions," numbering them according to the order of their organization.

(8.) Resolved, That as far as practicable we recommend all members of the W. C. T. to withdraw their support from grocers who hold liquor licenses.

(9.) Whereas, The great hope of our country freeing itself from the terrible drink curse lies in training the children up in the principles of total abstinence from alcoholic liquors, and, whereas, it is essential to this end that the nature and injurious effects of alcohol upon the human system be taught in our public schools, therefore,

Resolved, That the duty of introducing into the public schools of the province, a text book upon the nature and effect of alcohol upon the human system, similar to that in use in the schools of Ontario, be respectfully urged upon the government, and that a deputation from this convention be appointed to wait upon the Minister of Education for that purpose.

(10.) That the minutes of the convention be printed and forwarded to the local unions within three months from the date of convention, and that a committee on printing be appointed to carry the same into effect; said committee to endeavor to procure a sufficient number of business advertisements to defray the expenses of printing.

(11.) That recognizing in the prosecution of our White Cross and White Shield work the necessity of shelter and protection for our unfortunate fallen sisters, we formulate a plan whereby we can provide and maintain a home for such.

(12.) That as our hope so largely lies in training the children early in temperance principles, we add to our departments that of kindergarten work, and earnestly recommend our superintendent to institute temperance kindergartens in in connection with each local union.

(13.) That as the W. C. T. U. aims to reach all classes of society, and as a means of introducing our work into the conservative, social class, we add to our existing departments that of parlor meetings.

A NON-POLITICAL FOREIGN SECRETARY.

London, Oct. 11—Earl Rosebery, in a speech at Leeds to-night, expressed himself in favor of the appointment of a non-political foreign secretary, who should speak with the united voice of the people without distinction of party. England's colonial system is becoming more involved with her foreign policy, and if she wished to retain her colonies she must admit them to a larger share in promoting England's interests and influence in foreign affairs.

THE KAISER IN ROME.

Rome, Oct. 11—Emperor William was received on his arrival by King Humbert in full uniform, bearing the German orders of decoration. The Emperor wore the uniform of the Red Hussars and the Order of the Annunciati. The appearance of the royal personages on emerging from the railway station was the signal for tumultuous cheering. The troops saluted and the bands played the German National Anthem. Besides the regular troops all the military clubs and popular associations were present. The monarchs entered the state carriage, which was drawn by six horses, escorted by cuirassiers. The carriages were followed by various members of royalty. The Emperor was received at the Quirinal by the Queen of Italy surrounded by the ladies of her court. A crowd of 50,000 people had gathered in front of the palace, and as the Emperor appeared they cheered and waved the German and Italian flags. After a private conference with Cardinal Rampolla the Emperor will make his adieu to His Holiness the Pope and will return to the Prussian Legation, and thence proceed to the Quirinal in the Italian state carriage. The city has assumed a festive appearance. Visitors from all parts of the continent, as well as Italians from all the provinces and districts have flocked hither, and facilities for the accommodation of strangers are already over-stocked. Balconies along the route the Kaiser took in reaching the Quirinal from the railway station were readily rented at 1,000 francs each, and sums offered for other advantageous points from which to view the procession exceeded twice that sum.

"YEOMAN OF THE GUARD."

Great Success of Gilbert and Sullivan's New Opera.

London, Oct. 2—The libretto of Gilbert and Sullivan's new opera, "The Yeoman of the Guard, or the Merry Man and his Maid," is serious in style and not in burlesque form. The wit is almost Shakespearian. The lyrics are clever. Some of the songs belong to the order of true poetry and the whole is instinct with genuine comedy. Although the main incident upon which the action is founded has done duty before, yet it is so cleverly arranged that the element of surprise is employed with great ingenuity, and the interest seems sustained from first to last. There is but one scene in which the action passes the area in front of Norman keep in the Tower of London. The plot is laid in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, the incidents in the second act taking place at an interval of two days. The stage management involves many difficulties. The situations are picturesque and form a most attractive spectacle. The music is much more dignified in character than required for comic opera. At the same time it is a masterpiece and the ensembles throughout approach the line of grand opera without losing any of the character which has made the fame of the composer. The songs are full of melody, sometimes quaint but always charming, while the duets, trios and quartettes are original and beautiful.

Rheumatic and blood impurities are also driven out by it, digestion restored, and the system benefited in every way by its use. *

—Gilbert Laird, St. Margaret's Hope, Orkney, Scotland, writes:—"I am requested by several friends to order another parcel of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The last lot I got from you having been tested in several cases of Rheumatism, has given relief when doctors' medicines have failed to have any effect. The excellent qualities of this medicine should be made known, that the millions of sufferers throughout the world may benefit by its providential discovery." *

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and when these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and as shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief. *

Alleged Smuggling Case.

Don. R. Roop, Captain of the ship Narcoos, was summoned to appear in the police court this morning on a charge of smuggling spirits at Esquimalt. The information was laid at the instance of W. Hamley, Collector of Customs for this port. The case was taken before Hon. A. N. Richards, but he informed the parties that his jurisdiction does not extend outside the municipality of Victoria. His Worship Mayor Grant and Messrs. Geo. Morrison, J. P., and N. P. Snowden, J.P., were then called upon and opened proceedings in the City Hall this morning. Mr. W. T. Drake, Q. C., appeared for the prosecution and Thornton Fell defended Capt. Roop.

Counsel for the defense stated that he was engaged in another case and asked for an adjournment which was granted.

The Court re-assembled at 1.30 p. m.

The case was adjourned until 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning.

No Discrimination, Please.

The W. C. T. U. we observe, have appointed superintendents of the various fields of work, and among others one to influence the press. An excellent rule to enable the Association to carry out this object will be to deal fairly and squarely with all the newspapers, and show no leaning to any one in particular. It is always difficult to "influence" a person who has a grievance.

The Right Time.

Probably there is no period in life more important for the mental and moral training of youths than that between eight and seventeen years of age. If the spring-time of life is well employed, good results may be expected in after years. No better preparation can be afforded boys in this province than that which may be obtained at Corrig School, which is already largely patronized, and which a weekly increasing in number

Different from Comox.

The influx of settlers to New Westminster district is something remarkable and all unoccupied lands are being eagerly explored for locations. Where the land is exceptionally good it is at once squatted on to avoid loss by persons looking for homesteads. The probabilities are that in the course of another year, there will be very few eligible spots vacant on which to homestead direct from the Government. A few farms are for sale for which good prices are asked.—Guardian.

Cannot Land.

A telegram was received at the Treasury Department, Washington, from the Collector of Customs at Port Townsend, W. T., saying the steamer Ancon, from Sitka, had landed a Chinaman at Victoria, on his way to Port Townsend, and asking whether he should be allowed to land. Secretary Maynard to the telegram replied as follows: "The act of October 1 positively prohibits the landing of Chinese laborers who have departed from United States territory. Chinese per Ancon from Alaska cannot land."

The Opera.

The Juvenile Opera Company presented the "Chimes of Normandy" last evening to another good house. The young people placed this latest addition to their repertoire on the boards in a very acceptable manner. The leading characters of "Serpolette," "Germaine" and especially "Gaspard" were well taken and the support in the choruses was all that could be desired. John Lowell as "Gaspard" has an original conception of his part which took the house simply by storm. At the end of the act he was called three times. Teddy Gamble, the clever little comedian, was very amusing. This evening the ever-popular and interesting "Mikado" will be given when beautiful costumes of Japanese silk will be worn. "Pinafore" will be presented at to-morrow afternoon's matinee, and the "Chimes of Normandy" will be repeated to-morrow evening.

Fire Alarms.

At 2 o'clock this morning the Chief Engineer of the fire department was called up by the attendant in the telephone office and informed that six fire alarms had been turned in. The wires were not working properly, and it was impossible to tell the location of the box in which the alarm was given. The Chief immediately called the houses and had everything prepared for a fire. Horses were hitched and order given to ring no alarm on the bells untill the fire was located. After everything was prepared another alarm came in, but like the first alarms the box could not be ascertained. The firemen waited for nearly an hour but no further evidence of a fire was found. It is believed that the wires were crossed by the wind. The alarm boxes are not locked and a mischievous boy or man can alarm the city and call the department out whenever he thinks fit. This city is certainly large enough to have a proper fire alarm system with lock boxes.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

The Skating Rink and who were There—Menzies Case, &c.

The Colonist says that the metaling of the Esquimalt road began a few days ago. The Major thinks that the members for Esquimalt will require plenty of metal and brass as well to face their neglected constituency next election. If they don't the people will make use of it in pelting them for the neglect in this and other matters.

Did you go to the skating rink last evening to meet Mr. Moody? Well, everyone was there, even to the "Ex-Councillor." The Major never fancied there were half so many Christians about. Rev. Mr. McLeod has great confidence in that article here, for he intends to fill the hall up to overflowing. Mr. Moody didn't come. Mr. Starr said Victoria wanted an earthquake to shake them up. Well, if they go to the rink they'll be shook up enough if it were only with the shivers and they'll be sent on the road to glory by express from the intolerable draft of the old barn. What with damp weather, damp seats, open doors, window sashes without glass, and other little inconveniences, the road is perfectly clear. It would not take long to make it comfortable. Stop up the holes a bit.

It was a pleasing sight to see "Ex-Councillors" and Aldermen present; also the Hon. John. Oh, John, John, why don't you be a little consistent? You're in the Cabinet, John; make it compulsory on your colleagues to enact laws which, properly carried out, will attain the objects you pretend to favor. No use in your saying you can't, that you're only one, &c. Make it a point to resign if they won't back you; then would you look honest, all other appearances to the contrary—including your proboscis.

The Colonist has the assurance to publish a special anent the receipt of the Menzies' petition at Ottawa. It glories in its shame, which perhaps it has a perfect right to do; but why drag down the fair city of Victoria in the vortex? Mr. Moody may have some influence to turn the wicked into the wisdom of the just. Now that the great revival is at hand, we are not half so bad as we want to make out we are. There are some righteous still left in the city, and the likelihood is that it won't be destroyed with fire and brimstone yet awhile. The brimstone is here already, and only requires ignition to come to a blaze. Mr. Moody will, it is hoped, succeed in destroying a great deal of the matter, and that right off. He holds his second meeting at 8 o'clock this evening, when you are all expected to attend. Turn out in your thousands. You'd turn out to see a dog fight, a cock-fight, or a horse race; turn out and have a fight for a free place in the race for glory. Follow the example of yours truly,

THE TOWN MAJOR.

INCENDIARY FIRE.

Continuance of the Evidence Taken on Thursday Afternoon.

W. G. Simpson stated—That he was in company with Mr. McConnan on the night in question. Called Mr. Dorman and went to the house; we went to work to extinguish the fire; was around the house when Mr. Dorman came; helped to extinguish the fire.

R. J. Plummer—Heard the alarm; went to the house and opened the windows; the Chief Engineer was in the house at the time; went away and returned in half an hour; wanted to see Mrs. Powers; my mother left some things in charge of Mrs. Powers; looked around for them; subsequently saw the things in a barn outside the house; these things consisted of a Japanese box, a silver cup and other articles; saw other places where fire had been; saw Mrs. Powers three weeks before the fire; sent a telegram to Mr. Powers telling him to come home.

Emily Powers—Was in bed at Mrs. Jamieson's at 11 o'clock on Tuesday night; was called up by Mr. Smith and went to the house on Superior street; the fire was extinguished when witness arrived; saw the blackened cupboard in another room; kept kindling wood in a cupboard in the bedroom; was in the house on the evening in question and left at six o'clock; the furniture is insured for six hundred dollars; have been in the house over a year; had $200 under the trunk; took three canaries away on the evening of the fire; Mr. Salmon offered to buy the furniture in my stable.

To Mr. Cowan—Had a cup of tea before leaving that night; cannot account for the charred wood in the cupboard; the furniture was insured for $300 and was increased to $600 by Mr. Wylde; the agent said we might insure for $1000.

To Mr. Young—There were two cans of coal oil in the room outside the house; left none in the house; did not knock a board off the side of the house.

Police Officer Abel said he heard an alarm a short time after 10 o'clock; after the smoke disappeared saw a fire in a cupboard; examined it with Mr. Deasy; saw fire there; looked under the house and saw a hole burned there; there was plenty of coal oil around the house; it was not possible to start the fire in the cupboard from beneath the house.

The written verdict was that the fire on Tuesday night was the work of an incendiary.

SPORTING NOTES.

The Laurie Bugle Competition—Road Sculling, Etc.

It has been decided to postpone the competition for the Laurie Bugle until Saturday the 20th instant, so as to afford further time for rifle practice by the teams to take part in the match. A team from the Brigade of Garrison Artillery and one from the Victoria Rifle Company will compete for the bugle on that date, and both teams will do their utmost in the meantime to prepare for the contest, and every fine day will be utilized at practising on the range. The contest for the "Fleming Cup" will take place to-morrow afternoon without fail. The New Westminster rifle men have arranged to shoot over their own range for the same object at the same time. The cup is now held by Bomb. W. P. Winsby, of the Brigade of Artillery, and we hope a Victoria member will be again the winner. The canvas target will be used, and if the weather is at all propitious a good muster of volunteers is expected, as the shooting for the "Fleming Cup" must come off under any circumstances. The ranges will be 300 and 600 yards, seven shots at each range.

ROAD SCULLING.

Following is the score of the "road sculling contest," which commenced in New York on Saturday, as it stood at midnight last night: Gaudaur, 365; Ross, 362; Plaisted, 354; McKay, 351; Bubear, 319; Hamm, 299; Conley, 284; Lee, 274; O'Connor, 212; East, 141.

A SAVAGE ANIMAL.

Attacks a Boy and Tears Open His Face.

At 1:20 this afternoon Mrs. B. Lawrence, wife of the proprietor of the Chicago candy store, entered Van Volkenburgh's butcher shop at the corner of Government and Yates streets, to purchase some meat. She was accompanied by her son, a lad about eight years of age. While Mrs. Lawrence was making the purchase her son stood in the centre of the shop. A large black and tan dog belonging to Mr. Van Volkenburgh attacked the boy and cut a severe gash in his left cheek, below the eye. The mother immediately seized the child and bound up the wound, which was bleeding profusely. Mr. Lawrence was sent for and and took the child to Dr. Davie's office, where the wound was sewed up. The dog went out of the shop and laid down on the sidewalk, keeping the passers-by at a safe distance for some time. He was finally led away by his owner.

SALE OF A WRECK.

Steamer Cariboo Fly and Cargo Purchased by L. Goodacre.

Capt. W. R. Clarke, auctioneer, disposed of the wreck of the steamer Cariboo Fly this morning. Bidding was lively for some time, and the wreck was finally disposed of to Lawrence Goodacre for the sum of $2,050. The cargo, consisting of 3250 cases of salmon was bought by the same gentleman for the sum of $6,700. If the steamer can be raised the investment will be a good one. A steamer will be dispatched to Grenville Sound in a few days with men and materials for raising the wreck.
